

Take Your Child to the Library Day @The Burlington Public Library

Saturday, February 4
10:30 am-4:30 pm

All Ages

Come and discover all that your library has to offer you and your child – you will be amazed!

- Perform a science experiment in the craft area, from PBS Kids Fetch! Experiments such as “Copper Cleanup with Pennies,” “Float my Boat!” “Tempest in a Teacup” “Potion Commotion” and “Toy Chemistry” will be led by our staff. A Fetch! Club may be starting soon! Please express your interest to any library staff member.

- Listen to a sample of an audio book
- Watch a book on the BookFlix database
- Learn about downloading books for kids
- Get a library card

- Explore our new "Challenge 365" early literacy program
- Sign up for an upcoming program
- Enter our “Take Your Child to the Library Day” contest
- Make us one of your weekly errands, and raise lifelong learners!

GENO SAYS, “Take your child to the library on February 4, 2012!”

CHILDREN: Please give us the reason your parents should bring you to the library. We know that one reason is to check out books, but please let us know what else brings you here! The top ten entries will be awarded a gift certificate for Ben & Jerry’s in Canton! Mmmmmmm. Bring completed forms to the library on or before 2/4/12. Winner will be selected on 2/6/12.

PLEASE BRING ME TO THE LIBRARY SO THAT I CAN CHECK OUT GREAT BOOKS AND...
